01. GENERAL

The General Conditions and the Specific Conditions of your insurance complement each other. The information you provided us and the conditions should be considered as a whole. Based on this we came to an agreement with you. Do you wish to change this agreement? Notify us on time!

02. WHICH INFORMATION DID WE USE FOR THE INSURANCE AND WHAT DO WE PRESUME?

As policy holder you need to have filled out the application screen on one of our branches or our website correctly and truthfully. We can verify your information and ask for additional information or possible additional statements.

Our insurance is founded on trust. This is why we presume that you:

- Will treat your own possessions and those of other persons conscientiously and carefully;
- You supply us with honest information;
- Within reasonable limits do everything in your power to avoid damage or loss.

03. WHEN DOES YOUR COVERAGE START?

- The commencing date of your coverage is stated in your policy. As of that moment your coverage has taken effect. Your coverage is effective during the period mentioned in the policy. Your coverage is limited to damage incurred after this moment.
- For every agreed period we send you a digital invoice. Are we not able to collect the first premium from your account? In that case you were never insured.
- Have you decided you don't want to take out the insurance anymore? In that case you are legally allowed to cancel the policy within 14 days.

04. WHAT ARE YOU COVERED FOR?

All insurances have Specific Conditions. These mention in which cases we do and in which cases we don't pay out. The insurance covers the possessions and persons you filled out on the application screen. Your policy and/or the Specific Conditions list the maximum amounts we compensate. There you will also find the deductible amount and the amounts you still need to pay by yourself when you incur damage.

Did something happen before the commencing of the insurance, which caused damage when the insurance was already effective? In this case we won't compensate this damage. Because in this case it was already certain that you would incur this damage before you took out the insurance.

05. WHERE IS THE COVERAGE EFFECTIVE?

The Specific Conditions of your insurance lists the countries where the insurance is effective. This may differ for each insurance.

06. WHAT ARE THE REGULATIONS CONCERNING PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS?

Down here you can verify the situations that influence your insurance and our agreements concerning payment.

6.1 Premium Calculation

- In case of a commencing date before day 15 in a given month, we calculate a part of the premium until the first day of the next month. If the insurance commences later than day 15 of the month, we calculate the premium for the current month together with the complete next month.
- Do you pay monthly? Then we will retain the premium before the beginning of each month. If you pay for a year, we will retain the complete premium.

6.2 Payment of Premium

- You have to settle each due period by means of automatic transfer from your account, as agreed when you took out the insurance. You make sure there is sufficient funds in your account to cover the premium.
- You have authorized MCIS to debit your account for the premiums owed monthly. MCIS debits your account around the 28th day of each month. Circumstances impeding the collection of the premium do not relieve you from your obligation to pay the premium before the due date.
- You are accountable for the payment of the insurance premiums owed.
- Premiums are owed up to the end date specified in the policy. When the insured person passes away before this date, payment is due up to and including the month of death.
- When we pay out, we will deduct all due premiums you still have to pay.

6.3 Default of payment

- Is your payment late? Then you will initially receive a reminder and a collection letter.
- Have you still not paid 2 weeks after we sent the collection letter? In that case you are not covered anymore starting the next day. We will not compensate your damage anymore.

06. WHAT ARE THE REGULATIONS CONCERNING PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS?

- Are you late to pay the very first premium or the first premium after a mutation of your insurance? In that case your insurance expires automatically as of the 30th day after your payment was due. In that case you will not receive an initial reminder.
- In case your account is overdrawn for two months in a row, MCIS may terminate the policy without the obligation of refunding premiums already paid. In this case MCIS will send a letter of cancellation.
- After the coverage has been canceled because of non-timely payment of a (continued) premium, you may restore the insurance in its original form provided that:
 - a. Your written request to that end reaches MCIS within 90 calendar days after the last (regular) premium payment and;
 - b. You have paid the amount of the overdue premium(s) within 90 calendar days after the premium due date and;
 - c. It has been proven that the health status of the insured person has not changed. To determine this, a short version of a health statement needs to be completed by client.

6.4 Regulations

- You have to keep paying your premium until you cancel the insurance. Also if your previous payment was late.
- Do you pay your premium in parts and did you miss some payments? Then you are only covered after settling all partial payments.
- Have you settled all premiums you still had to pay and have we received this money? Then you are covered again as of the next day. But exclusively for damage incurred afterwards.
- Exclusively with Car Insurance, if the policy is canceled by us due to non-payment, there is no right to the accumulated no claim discount.

6.5 Reimbursement

- You wish to cancel the insurance, for example because you sold your car or home? Then we will refund the premium that covers the period you already paid for. But only starting from the moment you ended or changed the insurance. Therefore you have to see to it to end the insurance in time. As long as you don't cancel the insurance yourself, you have to keep on paying your premiums.

We will never restitute premiums following a damage or in case of concealment, intentional damage, fraud and/or deceit.

07. IN WHICH CASE ARE YOU ALLOWED TO CHANGE YOUR INSURANCE?

You can change your insurance anytime. We will then do a new assessment of your information in the same way as for a new insurance. Your premium may increase or decrease or the conditions may change. If we are not able to cover you anymore, we will notify you immediately.

ATTENTION: Did you change the insurance while you already incurred damage? In this case the previous conditions apply.

08. IN WHICH CASE ARE YOU ALLOWED TO CHANGE YOUR PREMIUM AND CONDITIONS?

We are always allowed to change the premium or the conditions of your insurance. If we do this, we will let you know 30 days in advance. Do you not approve of our changes? In that case you can cancel the insurance. The insurance will then end at your request. We will refund the remaining premium.

09. WHEN DOES YOUR INSURANCE END?9.1 You end the insurance

- You are allowed to end the insurance* anytime. Immediately or on a future date. On that date your coverage will expire. We will refund the remaining premium into your account.

* Excluded continuous travel insurance, see special conditions Art.1.2.

9.2 We end the insurance

We are allowed to end the insurance in the following cases:

- If you deliberately provided false information when you took out the insurance. Or when it is evident that there is fraud or deceit. In this case we will notify you by certified mail that we end your insurance. The date you are not covered anymore will be included.
- If at taking out the insurance, you have not provided the correct information that was asked from you. Your request would have not been approved if we were aware of the rightful information. We will notify you when the insurance ends and you are not covered anymore.
- As consequence of a claim. For example if your damage is conspicuous or if your claims are more frequent than usual:
 - until one month after your claim;
 - or within a month after settling the claim. But for reasons related to handling of the claim. For example if you didn't cooperate to attend the claim.
- If you don't pay the premium or you pay late. And we have reminded you repeatedly. We will then send you an e-mail to end your insurance.

We will always send you an e-mail and a registered letter to inform you we canceled your insurance.

This mail states the date your insurance expires.

9.3 The insurance ends automatically

The insurance will end automatically in the following cases:

- If you are going to live abroad for more than 6 months. You have to notify us of this as soon as possible;
- If the insured object had so much damage it could not be mended anymore. Or if the value of the insured object was lower than the expenses to repair it.

10. WHAT DO YOU NEED TO DO WHEN YOU INCUR DAMAGE?General obligations

Did you suffer damage we have to compensate? Or a third party has demanded you to pay for damage?

Then you have to comply with the following agreements:

- You have to notify us as soon as possible of any damage;
 - See to it your premium has been paid on time;
 - You have to provide all information as soon as possible. For example:
 - If someone demands you to pay for a damage;
 - Summons to appear before a judge;

 - You are not allowed to say anything that may indicate we have to cover the damage;
 - You are not allowed to promise that we will cover the damage.
 - You have to provide all information that might be important to assess who is responsible as soon as possible, even if we have not asked for this information;
 - If we request this, you have to write and sign a report about the damage. This report has to list the reasons of the damage, the specification of the damage and the amount of the damage;
 - You have to give your cooperation with everything we do to handle the claim. And you are not allowed to do anything that may be detrimental to us. Whenever possible, you need to limit and prevent the damage;

11. IN WHICH CASE WILL YOU NOT BE COMPENSATED?11.1 When you don't comply with regulations

You will not be reimbursed if you don't comply with regulations. And if this is detrimental to us. Neither will you be reimbursed if you were dishonest with us. Or if you have not provided the correct information.

11.2 When you wait for more than one year to claim

You have to notify us of damage within one (1) year after you were aware of the damage. If not, you will not be compensated.

We don't compensate your damage, or we only compensate your damage partially? In this case we will announce by certified mail that we have disapproved your claim.

12. DO YOU HAVE MORE INSURANCE?

Have you incurred damage? And you are covered elsewhere too for this damage? In this case you need to notify us immediately of the nature of this other insurance.

We will only give compensation in case there is no other way for you to get your damage paid. If you have more coverage of your damage, you need to approach the other insurance first to have your damage compensated. You have to do this first thing, even if there are existing laws or other regulations that oblige payment for your damage.

13. WHEN YOU CEDE THE INSURED PROPERTY

The only possessions you can insure are those you own yourself or those owned by your family members. You ceded something that is insured? Maybe you gave it away as a present? The insurance will end automatically in 30 days.

13.1 You passed away

If you pass away and your heirs transfer something you insured to another owner? In this case your heirs have to notify us immediately (change of title).

As of this moment, the insurance does not cover you anymore, but instead the new proprietor of the goods you insured.

The new proprietor can notify us by e-mail to end the insurance. Or apply for a new insurance.

We are also allowed to send a notification to end the insurance.
